

GULF OF POETS PRIVATE BOAT TOUR

The day begins around 10 in the morning, on board, the crew will welcome you with a selection of fresh fruit, Ligurian focaccia, and Prosecco.

The cruise starts along one of Italy's most evocative coastlines, renowned for its poetic landscapes and pristine nature: the Gulf of Poets.

The first part of the tour will take you to Lerici, an enchanting village dominated by its medieval castle and framed by tall cliffs and rolling green hills. The navigation continues toward Tellaro, a small gem perched between sea and rock. Here you can enjoy a refreshing swim in turquoise waters or simply relax on board, surrounded by the tranquility of the Mediterranean.

After lunch, the experience continues in Portovenere, a charming fishermen's village at the entrance of the Gulf of Poets. Its colorful houses, the Church of San Pietro, and the Castle offer unforgettable views, perfect for exploring on foot.

For lunch, you may choose to disembark in Portovenere or on Palmaria Island, both locations offer beautiful views and restaurants specialising in fresh seafood and traditional Ligurian cuisine.

In the afternoon, you will visit Palmaria, an island rich in nature and panoramic trails, before continuing toward Tino and Tinetto, two wild and atmospheric islands ideal for swimming and snorkelling. The crew will provide all necessary equipment.

After a day of relaxation and discovery, you will return in the afternoon, enchanted by the unique beauty of the Gulf of Poets.
