

PALERMO TOUR AND STREET FOOD

An immersion into the history, culture, and flavours of Palermo through its historic centre and one of the city's oldest and liveliest markets.

The guided tour begins with a visit to the main landmarks of the centre: the majestic Cathedral, the famous Quattro Canti, the spectacular Fontana Pretoria, and the enchanting Church of La Martorana, remarkable examples of Baroque and Norman art and architecture.

The itinerary continues in the vibrant heart of the city, Ballarò Market, an authentic place full of colours, aromas, and sounds, where everyday life of the locals unfolds among stalls of fruit, vegetables, fish, and local products.

Walking through the market streets, guests can discover and taste the most famous and traditional Sicilian street foods, enjoying an informal and authentic gastronomic experience.
