

GEMS OF TUSCANY: VOLTERRA & LAJATICO

Discover an off-the-beaten-path Tuscany with a captivating full-day experience between Volterra and Lajatico, two authentic gems rich in history, art, and breathtaking landscapes.

The tour begins in Volterra, a fascinating town of Etruscan origin. A guided walk through the historic centre leads along ancient streets and panoramic viewpoints overlooking the Roman Theatre.

The experience includes a visit to Palazzo Viti, an elegant Renaissance residence in the heart of the town, where original furnishings and precious artworks collected by the Viti family over the centuries are beautifully preserved. A coffee break at the town's best historic café and a visit to a traditional alabaster workshop, reflecting Volterra's artisanal heritage, are also included.

The journey continues along a scenic cypress-lined road to Lajatico, a small and welcoming village of fewer than 1,000 inhabitants, best known as the birthplace of Andrea Bocelli. A guided walk through the historic centre reveals the town's ancient roots and contemporary art installations that bring a lively and surprising atmosphere.

A scenic walk leads to the famous Teatro del Silenzio, an extraordinary open-air theatre set among rolling hills, offering breathtaking views stretching all the way to Volterra.

The day concludes with a traditional Tuscan lunch at a charming restaurant in Lajatico or Peccioli, followed by a celebratory toast with a glass of Prosecco produced by the Bocelli family at their Foodcourt, for a refined and memorable finale.
