

FAMOUS BUTCHER, T-BONE STEAK & WINERY IN SAN MINIATO

Spend the day in the picturesque town of San Miniato, famous for the ancient fortress of Federico II and for the connection with Napoleon, the Via Francigena pilgrim route, monumental squares and palaces, excellent wines and truffles. With your guide visit one of Tuscany's most famous butchers and learn how they craft high-quality meats, cold cuts, and T-bone steaks. In their little restaurant, you'll enjoy a delicious lunch, including the famous T-bone steak, paired with a glass of local wine.

In the afternoon, head to a family-run winery producing unique Tuscan wines. You'll taste 5 wines from the farm while admiring the view over the vineyards and learn about the specific wine making art adopted in this estate. Meeting the dedicated family members behind the wines and enjoying a stroll among the vines will offer a deeper understanding of their winemaking process.
