

5 SENSES TASTING

Just a few kilometers north of Siena, in the charming municipality of Vagliagli, lies the historic Mocenni Estate - Bindi Sergardi dating back to 1067—an unforgettable destination for wine lovers and those seeking a truly immersive Tuscan experience.

Embark on an exclusive journey with a guided tour of the ancient aging cellar, where you'll discover the art of winemaking and have the rare opportunity to taste wine straight from the barrel. This sensory adventure, led by an expert sommelier, is designed to engage all five senses.

Indulge in a curated selection of five exceptional wines, each showcasing the unique flavors and history of the region. The tasting experience is perfectly complemented by a delicious assortment of Tuscan delicacies, including rich cheeses paired with jam, savory cold cuts, and freshly baked Tuscan bread drizzled with premium extra-virgin olive oil.

This is not just a wine tasting—it's an invitation to savor the very essence of Tuscany, combining tradition, flavor, and breathtaking views in one unforgettable experience.
