

IN VILLA COOKING CLASS

Discover the Art of Italian Cuisine in the comfort of your villa. Embark on a unique gastronomic experience, a cooking lesson tailored to you and your taste and needs, in the quiet and privacy of your villa.

A local professional chef will guide you with patience and care through the preparation of Italian cuisine that you will choose freely: you may immerse yourself totally in the world of pasta, or you may wish to learn a rare traditional dish. The choice is in your hands.

With the chef's help, you'll learn the secrets of Italian cooking, using fresh, local ingredients and traditional and modern techniques.

After the class, you will set the table, inside or outside, and enjoy the dishes you prepared.

At the end you will gain more than just a few recipes and a delicious meal—you'll bring with you a piece of Italy to replicate back home and share with those you love.

THE PRICE INCLUDES: Ingredients for the chosen menu, and final tasting of the prepared dishes.
