

FROM MARKET TO MEAL: A ROMAN COOKING CLASS ADVENTURE

Embark on an authentic culinary journey through the heart of Rome and his heartfelt cuisine.

A local chef will take you to the bustling Campo de' fiori market, where you'll hand-pick fresh ingredients for your cooking class. Then, you'll head to an exclusive location in the city centre—whether it's a movie set, a magazine-cover apartment on Tiber island, or a stunning three-story space inside a 16th-century palazzo between Piazza Navona and Castel Sant'Angelo.

You'll master the art of homemade pasta, from ravioli to fettuccine, and prepare other dishes under the expert guidance of your personal chef. At the end of the course, savour the dishes you've created, paired with the perfect wine selected by your chef. This experience immerses you in authentic Roman culture, making you feel like a true local.

Your lesson includes 3 types of pasta, a main course, dessert, and a selection of wine and soft drinks. It's possible to accommodate any dietary needs, from intolerances to vegetarian preferences, ensuring every palate is satisfied. Real food, pure pleasure.

---

THE PRICE INCLUDES: shopping in local market & shops, lesson, 5-course meal with appetizer, 3 pastas, main course, side dish, dessert, water & wine (or soft drink upon prior request)

MEETING POINT: Piazza Campo de' Fiori, 56, in front of cinema farnese

DURATION: 5H

