

FLORENCE WALKING TOUR WITH ACADEMIA GALLERY & UFFIZI

Discover Florence, a city rich in extraordinary historical and artistic heritage: the cathedral, known as the Duomo, with Brunelleschi's dome, the baptistery, and the bell tower designed by Giotto.

The Ponte Vecchio, with its typical jewellery shops, Piazza della Repubblica, Piazza della Signoria, and Santa Croce, where the tombs of Michelangelo and Galileo are located.

With your private guide you will then enter the Uffizi Gallery, one of the most important galleries in the world, to discover its masterpieces, ranging from the 12th to the 17th century, including paintings by top artists like Cimabue, Botticelli, and Raphael. Next, visit the Accademia gallery and admire the famous "David," the statue that cemented Michelangelo's reputation as the greatest sculptor of his time. Learn about the making and history of this glorious sculpture. The Accademia also displays works by other important Renaissance artists such as Uccello, Ghirlandaio, Botticelli, and Sarto. A comprehensive experience to immerse yourself in Florence's rich art and history.
