

EXCLUSIVE WALKING TOUR IN URBINO

Discover Urbino, the "palace city," with an exclusive guided tour that will take you on a fascinating journey into the heart of the Italian Renaissance. Start the walking tour with a visit to the magnificent ducal palace, one of the most extraordinary masterpieces of Renaissance art and architecture. Continue your exploration with a stop at Raphael's house, the great genius of painting, and immerse yourself in the breathtaking views offered by the city's many panoramic spots. To conclude this journey through beauty, an exclusive visit to the "stamperia d'arte" Cà Virginio awaits you, an art workshop where you can closely observe the process of creating artistic prints. For those who wish to experience this ancient art firsthand, it is possible to request participation in experiential workshops, where you can create your own personal work of art on the spot. Join this unique experience to discover the rich cultural heritage of Urbino, a city that blends history, art, and enchanting landscapes, and let yourself be captivated by one of Italy's most fascinating destinations. An unmissable opportunity for those seeking an authentic encounter with art, tradition, and creativity.
