

FALCONRY LESSON IN TUSCANY

In the comfort of your villa, experience a unique and captivating adventure that will bring you into direct contact with majestic birds of prey such as falcons and golden eagles, allowing you to admire the grace and intelligence of these extraordinary hunters. Guided by a professional falconer, you will discover the ancient art of falconry – a fascinating tradition that has been passed down through centuries, from the time of emperors and knights to the present day. You will witness the powerful and precise flight of these birds as they respond to the falconer's commands, and if you wish, you can experience the thrill of having a bird of prey land on your glove, feeling firsthand the unique bond between falconer and raptor. Amid the breathtaking landscapes of the Tuscan countryside, you will embark on a journey through time and nature, uncovering the special connection between humans and birds of prey while observing the authentic charm of this ancient art.

THE PRICE INCLUDES: Falconer, falcons, and eagles.

DURATIONS: 2H.

