

CAGLIARI TOUR AND THE ANCIENT CITY OF NORA

Discover the rich history of Cagliari, the capital of Sardinia, on this fascinating journey through time. Explore the city's four historic districts—Castello, Stampace, Villanova, and La Marina—which continue to shape its identity today. Cagliari is also home to the largest Archaeological Museum on the island, featuring an extraordinary collection of artifacts that offer deep insights into Sardinia's past. After some time to explore the city, you will rejoin your guide and travel to the archaeological site of Nora. According to legend, Nora was founded by Norace in the 7th century BC. The Phoenicians, expert traders, first settled here, making it a key hub along major trade routes between the East and Sardinia's coast. Over time, Nora's importance grew under the Punics and later flourished under Roman rule. Even today, ongoing excavations continue to unearth invaluable artifacts, shedding light on the island's ancient history.
