

PRIVATE COOKING CLASS & BRUNELLO WINE TASTING

Discover the Timeless Charm of Pociano Winery & Farm, nestled in the heart of the Senese countryside, just 17 km from Siena, 34 km from Montalcino, and 80 km from Florence, Pociano is an ancient family-run winery and farm with a rich history dating back to the 1600s. Once the summer residence of the Senese Church, connected to Santa Maria della Scala, it offers a breathtaking view of the Crete Senesi, the iconic Siena skyline, and acres of vineyards and olive groves. Step into the world of traditional Italian cuisine with a hands-on pasta-making class led by a professional chef. Learn the secrets of creating “grandma’s recipes” with a creative twist, including mouthwatering pasta dishes, rich traditional sauces, and a special dessert to satisfy your sweet tooth. Complete your culinary adventure with a guided tasting of our exclusive Terre Nere wines, produced with the local Montalcino grapes, perfectly matched with the dishes you’ve crafted and enjoyed in front of vineyards.
